

ALIANZA GATO ANDINO - ANDEAN CAT ALLIANCE

IV INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP FOR ANDEAN CAT CONSERVATION

4-8 April 2006
La Paz - Bolivia

OBJECTIVES

- To assess the actions developed within the research and education projects
- To evaluate the structure and operation of the Andean Cat Alliance
- To elect the new Coordinator AGA for the 2006-2008 period
- To evaluate the implementation of the Action Plan, fulfilment of objectives and goals
- To agree actions for being developed in the second phase of the Action Plan
- To discuss future strategies for obtaining funds

PROGRAMME OUTLINES:

4 April 2006

- 9:00 - 13:00 Welcome words, message from WCN, participants' presentations, reports of activities (2003-2006) by AGA Coordinator and AGA Country Representatives
- 14:30-19:30 Evaluation of AGA structure and operation, election of the new AGA Coordinator, evaluation of the Action Plan, actions to be developed during 2006-2008 period.

5 April 2006

- 9:00 - 13:00 Actions to be developed during 2006-2008 period (continuation), evaluation of projects within the "Future Initiatives section" of the Action Plan
- 14:30-19:30 Discussion on common AGA projects, special session for Andean cat Darwin Initiative Project.

6 April 2006

- 9:00 - 13:00 Discussion session on Future Strategies for AGA funding
- 14:30-19:30 Discussion on common AGA activities and general workshop conclusions. Special work session to finalize the elaboration of the "Field methodologies manual for the assessment of high Andean carnivores"

7 - 8 April 2006

Field trip to Sajama National Park - visit to two localities where Andean cat project is being carried out

Workshop Language: Spanish

Workshop moderator: Claudio Sillero, WCN adviser and AGA member.

Workshop participants: AGA members and WCN representative